Guest Lecture on "Cyber Crime Impact on Students"

The Kongunadu College of Engineering and Technology along with National Cyber Security Research Council organizes a Guest Lecture on "Cyber Crime Impact on Students" on 22.09.2023 at our institution through physical mode. The students belonging to the department of Artificial Intelligence and Data Science, Computer Science and Engineering and Information Technology are participated in this event. The program was started with a welcome address delivered by Dr. K.Baskar., HoD/AD. The Resource person Dr. E.Khalieraaj, Director-General, National Cyber Security Research Council, New Delhi was acted as the Chief Guest for this Programme.

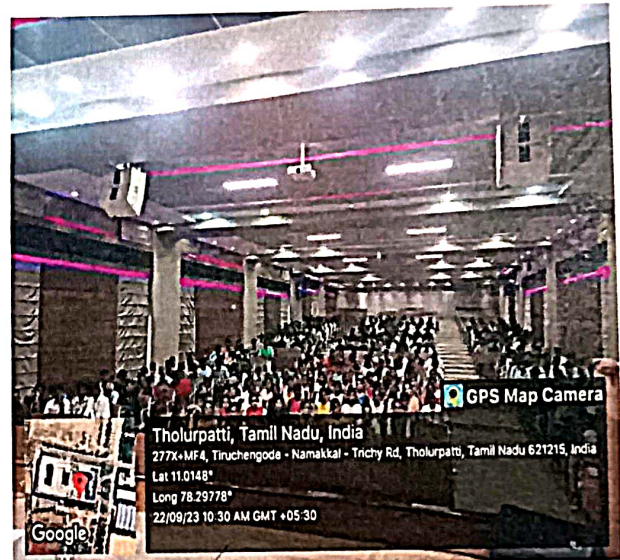

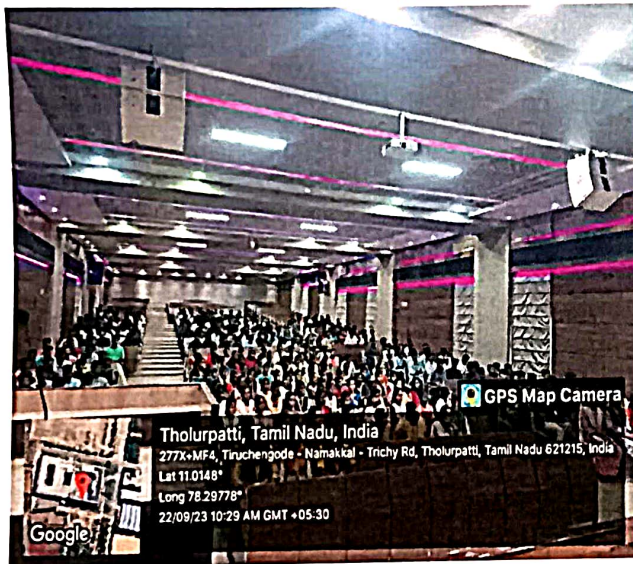

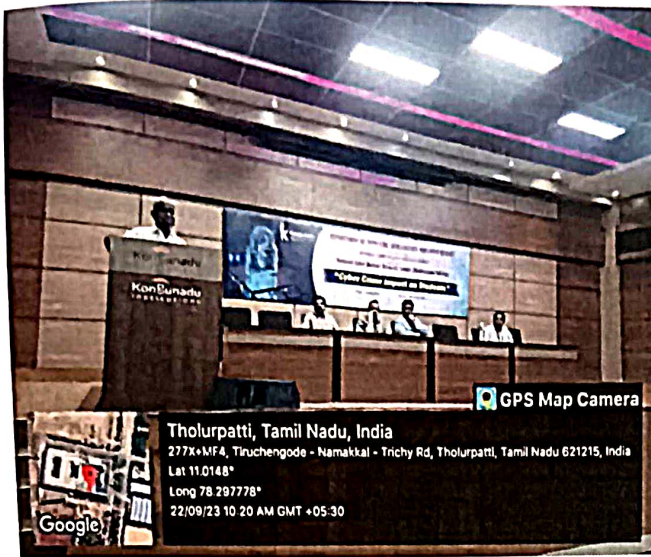

This Guest Lecture is a unique program for engineering students, focused on the Cyber Crime Impact on Students. Event started with explaining about the Importance of National Cyber Crime Reporting Portal and one can lodge complaint in it. Dr. E.Khalieraaj also explained how Hackers steal our Banking Credentials and get our money from Bank accounts and all types of social media relevant hackings and awareness in order to day by day life were discussed with students. He also discussed protection measures that one need to take for protecting their banking and all types of social accounts from hackers.

The program ends with a vote of thanks from Mr. Sanjay R (III-AD).
