A Small Story That Can Change Your Life

A boy and a girl were playing together.

The boy had a collection of marbles, while the girl had some sweets with her. The boy suggested an exchange—he would give all his marbles in return for her sweets. The girl agreed.

However, the boy secretly kept the biggest and most beautiful marble for himself and gave the remaining marbles to the girl. The girl, true to her word, gave him all her sweets.

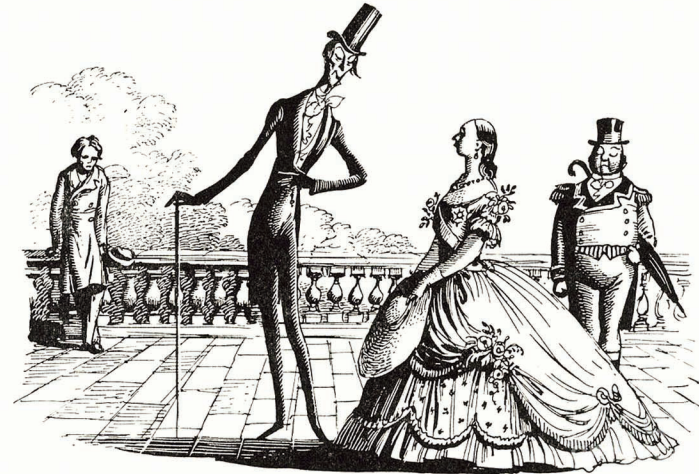

That night, the girl slept peacefully.

But the boy could not sleep. He kept wondering whether the girl had hidden some sweets from him—just as he had hidden his best marble.

Moral of the Story

If we do not give 100% in a relationship, we will always carry doubt in our hearts.

True peace comes from honesty, trust, and giving our best.
